

iv) what steps, if any, could be taken to disburse those settlement funds to class members; and v) the propriety of making a cy pres distribution of any remaining settlement funds.” (Id.) Finally, I directed the Settlement Administrator to provide counsel for all parties with confirmation of distribution of the remaining settlement fund. (Id.)

On June 22, 2022, Defendants filed a letter stating that the addresses for the Nineteen Class Members would be in the possession of the management company and not the Defendants but indicated that they would attempt to obtain the addresses. (Doc. 194.) In addition, the Defendants questioned the $7,500 administrator costs cited in Plaintiff’s application and how those funds would be paid. (Id.)

As of the date of this order, there have been no additional filings on the docket from any of the parties since June 22, 2022. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties provide a joint status letter by October 24, 2022 indicating whether the funds were dispersed, and whether there are any outstanding issues that need to be resolved before closing the above-captioned action.

SO ORDERED.
